Editorial by Kawakawa Bay Community Association

“Kawakawa Bay – a safe and inclusive coastal community”

Spring has sprung with lambs and calves now at foot and the children are getting ready for Ag Day. With the longer days and the sun starting to appear we are also noticing the increase in traffic and visitors to our area.

As per a previous editorial, I too would like to reiterate our thanks to all those who give generously to our communities, volunteering their time and expertise. Most community organisations are not well funded and rely on obtaining grants, but are mainly financially funded through “local supporting local” to get community good projects up and going. Without their support and assistance, many amenities would not be able to be enjoyed by locals but also visitors to our areas.

We have been lucky enough to have a generous local family donate their time and energy into creating a new website for Kawakawa Bay. Gavin Healy, featuring wife Sarah, have created a fantastic community website for Kawakawa Bay, showcasing the wonderful places and activities Kawakawa Bay has to offer, whilst providing an online platform making it easier for locals to engage with local community groups and support local businesses. We are pleased to announce that this is to go live by the end of the month!

Community Engagement: The Kawakawa Bay Community Association would like to thank our Franklin Local Board representatives and Lucy, who hosted a “Have Your Say” day in conjunction with our local community markets on 5 August. We had a great turnout and there were certainly a lot of subjects to consider that affect our communities now and into the future. Thanks to all those who took time to provide feedback - the more voices we have, the stronger our requests for the prioritisation of projects in our area become.

Community Noticeboards: Committee members have been working hard to get the noticeboards repaired and accessible to those wishing to advertise.

The KBCA noticeboard on the side of the Kawakawa Bay Dairy is for long-term advertising and the newly gifted noticeboard at the front of the Dairy is for any upcoming events.

Some new signage has gone up and there is a lockbox available so community groups can access for advertising.

Roading: The KBCA is pursuing with the roading issues facing our area (dropouts, potholes, barrier arm at Whitford Point and speed).

It’s great to see people reporting the roading issues. The repair work doesn’t seem to last long, so please continue to report issues ie. potholes via the online reporting at www.at.govt.nz/about-us/contact-us/ or via phone (09) 301 0101.

Ensure you receive a logit reference.

Keen to become a member of KBCA?

We encourage you to become a member so that you have the ability to vote at upcoming community consultations. In addition you also receive a copy of the Whispers (local community news publication). If you’re not a member and would like to be, please email us at: kbbwhispers@gmail.com, subject: Membership.

KBCA Meetings: We hold our committee meetings on the first Monday of the month at the Kawakawa Bay Hall, 7pm. We welcome you to join us.

All the best for the year ahead.

Rachel Cashmore
 Kawakawa Bay Community Association Chair

WIN tickets to Howick Little Theatre

The PC Times has two double passes to give away to Howick Little Theatre’s upcoming production, ‘Wait Until Dark’.

Howick Little Theatre opens Frederick Knott’s famous thriller Wait Until Dark on Saturday 9 September. In this adaptation by Jeffrey Hatcher of the 1966 classic, Susan Hendrix, a blind yet capable woman, is terrorised by a trio of men in her apartment in Greenwich Village in 1944. As the climax builds, Susan discovers her blindness might be the key to her escape, but she and her tormentors must wait until dark to play out this thriller’s chilling conclusion.

To be in to win a double pass: email your name and contact number to info@pctimes.co.nz, with ‘Howick Little Theatre’ in the subject line. Entries close 5pm Friday 15 September.

Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki farewells larger than life rangatira, James Brown

- by Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki chief executive Jada MacFie

Ka kōrihi, ka tangi
Ka tangi, ka kōrihi
Ka korokī ko Ngāi Tai
Ko Ngāi Tai ka korokī

Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki was deeply saddened to share the news of the sudden passing of our longtime rangatira, lead negotiator and loveable rogue, James Brown.

Born and raised at Mātaitai and Waitarata, James went to school locally, played rugby locally, likely got into mischief locally and upon his return from Australia nearly 30 years ago, dedicated his life to upholding the mana of Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki both locally and across the country.

Locals would have seen him driving his larger than life utes through the Clevedon village or surrounding areas, in the forest or out on the coast. Or would have heard him either laughing loudly or shouting into his phone while walking down the road on his way to Clevedon Seafoods.

James' personality was big and bold, and the James you experienced was determined by how you came into the meeting with him, and how you'd engaged with Ngāi Tai. He was a warrior when he needed to be, and also one of the kindest humans you could be lucky enough to know.

His whānau knew that James was well connected throughout the country, but seeing everyone arrive over the weekend of 25-26 August to pay their respects was deeply moving.

We would like to acknowledge and thank everyone's kind wishes and support as we arranged his tangihanga at Umupuia marae, particularly those who supported our traffic management notifications (but maybe not Gavin...) and everyone who contributed to what was a beautifully fitting send off for one of the leading characters in the Ngāi Tai story.

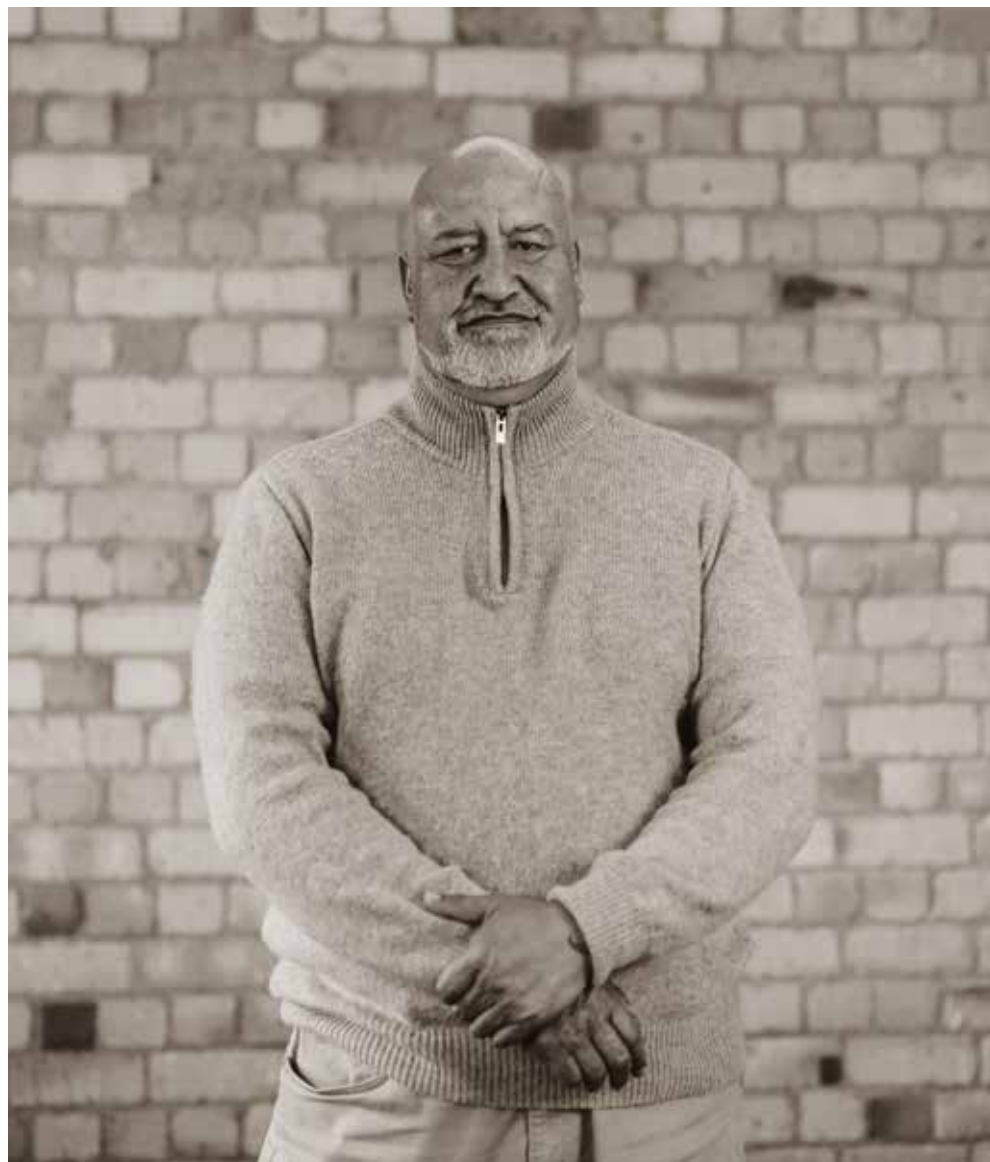

James leaves us with many great ideas to implement, and many successful business streams that Ngāi Tai is determined to see through to ensure his legacy.

Ko ngā whetū ki te rangi,
ko ngā kirikiri ki te one taitapa,
ko ngā mana whakaheke o Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki

As the stars in the sky, and the grains of sand on our many foreshores, so are the myriad chiefs in the pantheon of Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki forebears

Our Matua James now joins them. Oki oki atu rā e te Pāpā.

Clevedon Venturers model resilience at beleaguered World Scout Jamboree

Seven teenage Clevedon Venturers had their resilience tested by a heatwave, unsanitary conditions and then a typhoon during a recent visit to South Korea for the World Scout Jamboree.

The Clevedon Venturers plus 4 leaders joined 92 others from New Zealand at the jamboree, which hosted about 43,000 participants from more than 150 countries at the event held in Saemangeum.

It wasn't quite the trip the 14-18 year olds and their leaders had anticipated, but Clevedon Scouts representative Andrew Fisher says it was still a great experience to mix with adults and venturers from other countries who had all come together to enjoy their time and make it an event to remember.

The jamboree was plagued by problems from the time of its opening on 1 August when temperatures at the 9 square-kilometre campsite soared well above 30 degrees Celsius. Organisers had provided little shade or water, and with no contingency plan for the extreme weather, a number of participants suffered from heat exhaustion.

"The heat wave proved a challenge, as it went on for over 8 days and it really highlighted how both Kiwis and Aussies, along with our Pacific Island friends, understand heat and the need to be proactive. It was about consuming 5-7 litres of fluid a day, not just a bottle. It was relentless, we had to hunt for shade and be proactive in managing exposure," says Andrew.

Fortunately the Kiwi contingent arrived 7 days prior to the jamboree, and were able to acclimatise.

"In addition to this all the Kiwis had previously attended the New Zealand Jamboree at Mystery Creek, and had experience in large events, plus over 50 nights camping experience, which gave immediate context along with the ability to support each other. We were prepared," says Andrew.

The campsite, built on reclaimed land near the coast, had flooded just prior to the event. Jamboree organisers therefore took the precaution of pitching the sea of tents atop wooden pallets to get them off the damp ground. Poor sanitation was one of the biggest problems faced by the venturers. Andrew says the portable toilets were the major issue, serviced by only 70 cleaners and a few trucks, which was not enough to support over 42,000 event participants. "This was increased to over 570 on day four and a fleet of vacuum loader trucks, but still many were red stickered." A shortage of soap and toilet paper added to the campers woes.

The food supplied by the jamboree organisers was initially both insufficient and bland, which forced the Korean Government to step in on day four and increase rations significantly. Andrew says the supplied lunches consisted of a muesli bar, packaged plain roll and a can of fizzy water - nowhere near enough energy to sustain active teenagers, who had to top up their energy levels by purchasing additional food. The Kiwi contingent purchased extra food to ensure availability.

Andrew says that one of the biggest issues was that some children lost their appetite in the heat, and needed to be encouraged to eat.

Scouts UK decamped from the jamboree early on, with chief executive Matt Hyde saying the conditions were "simply not safe for our young people".

In typical Kiwi fashion though, the Clevedon Venturers made the most of their stay, escaping the heat with regular visits throughout the day to their rented air conditioned bus, and by taking part in night-time activities when the air was cooler.

Andrew says the event was a "huge let down" by the Korean organisers, but not reflective of the country or local community. "And definitely not comparable to the very successful Jamboree in the USA in 2019 or the much anticipated 2027 World Jamboree in Poland, which has already hosted a successful Euro Jamboree. But the Kiwis hung on and made the best of a bad situation."

The Kiwis eventually made the decision to leave the site three days earlier than planned due to an incoming typhoon, which eventually forced a mass evacuation of all attendees, with over 1000 buses supporting the operation.

Despite a heatwave, a typhoon and overflowing portaloos, the Clevedon Venturers (pictured above) had a great time at the World Scout Jamboree in South Korea.

"We were prepared for all of this," says Andrew. "Insurance kicked in, and we were able to move to our hotel accommodation in Seoul a few days earlier than scheduled."

The venturers then visited a waterpark, cultural and historic sites and a pop concert before attending the jamboree closing ceremony held at a football stadium in Seoul.

Despite the less than ideal conditions,

Andrew says the Clevedon team still enjoyed the experience, rating it "an 11 out of 10".

"We will never forget it and will compare everything in the future with it. It's called type 2 fun, at the time not so much fun, however upon reflection so many great stories, memories and friendships. Bring on Poland 2027, 26th World Scout Jamboree!"

Work begins on concept plans for Clevedon's community spaces

Is the playground by the Clevedon Hall in the best location? How can we better utilise the little reserve in the centre of the village? How do equestrian users, dog walkers and sports groups best share the Clevedon Showgrounds? What happens when our population grows to 4000 residents? Where will everyone park?!

These questions - and more - are being addressed by the Community Heart Plan and an updated Showgrounds Masterplan, initiated by the Clevedon Community and Business Association (CBA), Franklin Local Board and Auckland Council Parks and Community Facilities.

The Community Heart Plan is a concept plan for Clevedon Village's public spaces, including the hall, playground, the residential site on the corner of North and Twilight Roads, the District Centre and the reserve next to the cemetery. The aim is to better accommodate the needs of Clevedon's growing population and visitor numbers.

The impetus for this project was when Franklin Local Board set aside funds to renew the playground several years ago. The Clevedon CBA suggested that the playground may be better sited elsewhere, and that before Council spent valuable funds renewing it that the best place for the playground first be determined.

Work is underway to create a concept plan that makes better use of Clevedon's public spaces, including this council-owned property on North Road.

"We also highlighted to Franklin Local Board that, given the population growth on the horizon, consideration should be given to how all the Council-owned sites in Clevedon Village could best function," says Clevedon CBA Chair Victoria Richards.

Concurrently, the various user groups at the Clevedon Showgrounds were having similar discussions. With increasing demand anticipated across all sporting codes, increasing 'passive' recreation such as walking or cycling, and some well-articulated aspirations that include improved drainage and lighting, the Showgrounds User Group was formally re-established in 2022. Auckland Council committed to updating the masterplan for the site and amalgamated the two projects.

"We're delighted that Franklin Local Board is taking a whole-of-village strategic approach," says Victoria. "And we're also thrilled to be able to pull our community-driven Clevedon Village Design Framework back off the shelf to kick-start this exciting project."

Design firm Isthmus has been appointed to produce a concept plan for both the public spaces in the Village and the Showgrounds and to generate a programme for implementation. Work began late last month with a site visit by Isthmus and the next steps are workshops with key stakeholders.

Once a concept plan is adopted, it will be used to help guide Auckland Council's development and funding in the area.

BARFOOT & THOMPSON Student Voice

LOCAL STUDENTS' NEWS, VIEWS & LITERARY TALENT

This column features news, views and literary talents of students from Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Brookby, Hunua, Paparimu, Orere and Ardmore Schools.

One student featured each week will be presented with a certificate and a $20 book voucher, thanks to Barfoot & Thompson's Beachlands and Whitford branches.

This week's voucher sponsored by Wayne Rawson

Baah! Baah! The horns blow.

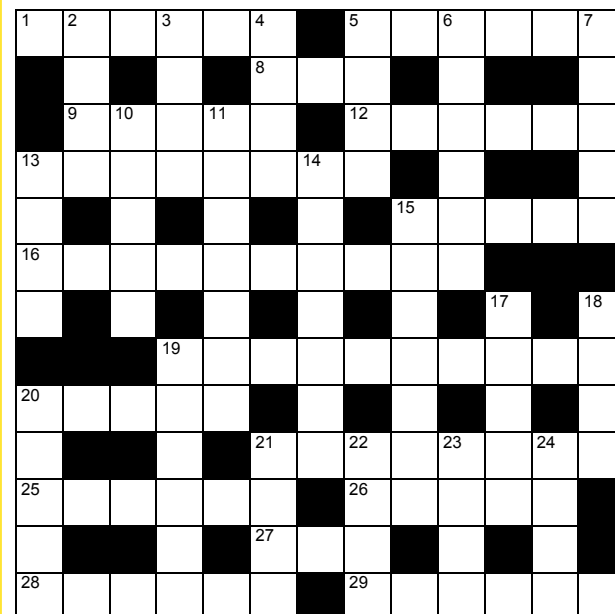

I'm in the castle about to get crowned. My heart is racing. My mum next to me. My friends on the side of me.

The person announces the new King Jackson. Everyone is cheering and clapping.

I am so proud of myself. I have come this far and my dream has come true.

- by Jackson Donnelly, Year 7, Brookby School
