2000km run raises funds for I Am Hope

Blake Schimanski lost his good friend to suicide, and has just run the length of the country to raise funds for youth mental health.

Former Beachlands resident Blake Schimanski completed the gruelling challenge of running the length of Aotearoa last month, in memory of Beachlands teen Shaun Kiteley who tragically took his own life just days before his 17th birthday in 2018.

Blake took his first steps from Bluff on 31 March, and over the following weeks ran the equivalent of two marathons a day to raise money for youth mental health charity I Am Hope.

The 24-year-old electrician from Howick was pushed to his mental and physical limits as he ran over 2,000 kilometres with the goal of raising $100,000 for I Am Hope.

The loss of his good friend Shaun opened Blake's eyes to how widespread and devastating mental illness can be — even among those who seem to have it all together. "That loss gave me awareness of how no one is immune to this illness," Blake says. "Shaun's death was the reason I began running."

Shortly after Shaun's passing, Blake joined a group of Shaun's friends and family in running the Auckland Half Marathon in his memory. The experience ignited Blake's passion for endurance running, and over the years he has completed a string of ultra-endurance events including the Taupō 100km Ultra, Sydney Ultra Marathon (where he placed 3rd), and the brutal Kings Backyard Ultra, clocking 170km in 25 hours.

His latest mission, dubbed 'Run Aotearoa', was his biggest challenge yet. Blake trained relentlessly in preparation for the physical and mental demands of running nearly 80km per day for four weeks straight.

Even with such disciplined preparation, it didn't take long for injury and fatigue to set in following the excitement of the first few days.

"The injuries started rolling in by day 3 with my ankle swelling up close to double the size after developing tendonitis," says Blake. "A few days later I then developed the same thing in my other ankle."

There were plenty more injuries to come, with severe

Editorial

by Kawakawa Bay Community Association chair Derek Nielsen

Emergency preparedness

As we enter autumn and the weather starts changing, it is reassuring to know that our community continues to prepare for emergencies that could arise. The grant that the Community Association was able to secure from the Cyclone Gabriel funding has now been put to effective use and we have taken delivery of a number of important items for our Civil Defence preparedness. These include Grab and Go Packs, beds, sleeping bags, food, cookers, radios and wet weather gear.

Our team has met and agreed on what other projects/tasks the KBCA will focus on for the 2025/2026 period. The next steps are to scope out each activity and work through how these can be progressed.

Boulder theft continues

A reminder to our community and visitors to Kawakawa Bay. The rocks and boulders that have been placed strategically along the foreshore are there for a reason - to try and protect the shoreline from erosion. It has been reported by several of our residents that these rocks and boulders are being removed or relocated. One area is at the end of Karaka Road where these rocks are being moved onto the sand flats as well as being moved onto the grass reserve.

Community Garden update

The new community garden project is underway, and the Kawakawa Bay gardening group has secured the services of fencing contractor Craig McLeod who will fence the garden area which is located on a vacant site, and instal an access gate.

Thanks to Craig and everyone who purchased the CWellbeing fundraising calendars which will help cover costs.

The gardening group has also received some funding from Lotto NZ to help get the garden growing.

At the club’s April meet up, the group created welcome signs which will be the first things to be planted in the new garden. The next next meet up is on 31 May from 1-3pm. All welcome.

If you would like to keep up to date with community garden progress, or would like to get involved, follow the Kawakawa Bay Gardeners Facebook page, visit their website <https://kawakawabaygardene.wixsite.com/kawakawa-bay-garden> or knee pain, hip pain and many blisters.

He ran on as little as three hours of sleep a night, starting every day at 3.30am and often finishing around 8.00pm. Meals were frequent and carb-heavy: McDonald’s, pizza, hot chips — anything to keep the engine going, he says.

The lack of sleep meant he was “constantly mentally fatigued pretty much the entire run,” he says.

His most challenging day came when he reached the central plateau.

“Running the Desert Road, my knee completely locked up so I sat down for a bit, which was not a smart idea. I completely froze up and had a bit of a break down and wanted to stop for the day. I ended up having a sleep for a couple of hours and got back into it.”

Through it all, his support crew (largely made up of his parents Paul and Fiona, and brother Jesse) were there for him, managing logistics, preparing food, tending injuries, and providing the constant encouragement he needed to keep going.

“They were working 24/7,” he says. “None of this would’ve been possible without them.”

Blake reached Cape Reinga on Sunday 27 April, just 28 days after setting off from the bottom of the South Island, minus four toenails.

The journey isn’t over though, with fundraising continuing until the end of May. He remains determined to hit his $100,000 target and raise awareness.

“I want young people to know it’s okay to talk. If you’re struggling, reach out to your friends or whānau. The more you do it, the easier it gets. And always check up on your mates — it’s often the ones you least expect who are struggling.”

Blake is taking a breather while his body recovers, but already has a few ultra-marathon races lined up in New Zealand and Australia later this year.

Young Te Puru gymnasts shine at Tri Star GFA event

- by Te Puru Community Centre

The Te Puru Gymnastics Club proudly took 30 of its budding gymnasts and tumblers to the Tri Star Gymnastics Club's GFA (Gym for All) event on Sunday 4 May, where they showcased their hard work and talent in front of an enthusiastic crowd of family and friends.

The day was filled with excitement as athletes performed a variety of routines and tumble passes, demonstrating the skills they've been developing throughout the year. The event provided a wonderful opportunity for gymnasts of all ages and levels to experience performing in a supportive, celebratory environment.

Head coach Maddie Smith said: "It was so awesome to see such a big group of our gymnasts out there performing — especially our youngest ones, some just five years old! They took on four different routines and absolutely smashed it. I was so proud of how confident and composed they were, and the way they cheered each other on was just heartwarming."

The club now turns its focus to preparing for its own in-house performance, set to take place in July, promising yet another opportunity to celebrate the dedication and growth of its athletes.

Advice from Franklin Vets: Keeping up with Ku

- by Franklin Vets

Meet Ku. Recently, Ku, the 10-year-old silky terrier cross, was diagnosed with both Cushing’s disease and diabetes after his owner noticed some changes in his behaviour and a noticeable weight loss. Diagnosing these conditions in animals can take time, and after a short stay at a specialist clinic, Ku began insulin to manage his diabetes.

There have been some challenges along the way, but Ku and his mum have shown incredible resilience. She meticulously tracks his health - on Ku’s very own phone! - and keeps us regularly updated. Ku’s cooperative spirit makes him the best patient we could ask for.

Animals can’t tell us when something feels wrong, so changes in behaviour, appetite, weight, or energy levels are often the first clues that something isn’t right. Consistent monitoring enables timely veterinary intervention and more effective treatment and ultimately leads to better outcomes and a higher quality of life for our pets.

COP SHOP NEWS

Introducing Beachlands Police Station's newest constables

There have been a few staff changes at Beachlands Police Station, with Sam Peake and Peter Phillips joining the team as general duties constables for the Beachlands/Maraetai areas.

Sam has been with the Police for 3 years, in frontline roles and in a specialist family violence role. He says he chose to serve the Beachlands Maraetai communities as an opportunity to grow his knowledge of Policing, engaging with other organisations and learning how to deal with community issues. He began his role at Beachlands earlier this year.

“What I have really enjoyed about working out on the Coast is the reception I have received from the residents,” says Sam. “Sometimes a simple “Hello, how’s your morning going?” is welcomed and appreciated. Often Police are subjected to a fair amount of criticism as we see people at low points of their lives.”

Peter Phillips has been a constable 6 years, and has been stationed at Beachlands since April 2024. His past experience includes roles in frontline policing, traffic, and investigation positions within organised crime.

Peter says he chose to be stationed at Beachlands, as he believes the community is in want of a new constable to engage and listen to their wants and needs, and to be effective in achieving goals desired by the community and Police.

"I felt that this was a challenge that would be rewarding," says Peter.

“Having to balance the desires of the community and what is expected of me in my role is a fine line, but that’s what I love about policing in general - the challenges you face, it motivates me,” says Peter.

Both constables say their recent focus has been on boy racers performing burnouts in local reserves.

They encourage people to note down registration plates, vehicle descriptions and times they have been seen and then report it. The more information that can be collected, the higher likelihood people can be held accountable.

The best way for people to contact Sam and Peter is by popping into the station between the hours of 9am or 12pm Monday to Friday.

“We have an amazing team of volunteers and your details can be passed on when we are available,” says Sam.

Boy racers continue to be an issue in Whitford and Beachlands

Police have observed a rise in boy racer activity in the Whitford and Beachlands area, raising serious concerns around burnouts, street racing, and other forms of reckless driving.

These behaviours are not only illegal — they endanger lives, put innocent people at risk, and impact the peace and safety of our communities.

Burnouts, high-speed racing, and dangerous manoeuvres can quickly lead to serious crashes, property damage, and long-lasting trauma.

The noise, smoke, and intimidation associated with these actions are becoming a growing concern for local residents.

Police are treating this offending with urgency. Officers are actively monitoring known hotspots and responding swiftly to reports from the public.

In New Zealand, offences related to street racing and dangerous driving can result in significant penalties — including heavy fines, licence suspension, vehicle seizure, and even imprisonment.

What you can do:

Local residents are encouraged to report any boy racer activity by calling 105 or using the online reporting tool at <https://www.police.govt.nz/use-105/driving-behaviour#main-content>

If the behaviour is happening right now and poses an immediate threat, call 111.

When safe to do so, please record and report as much detail as possible:

- Vehicle registration plates
- Car make and model
- Time and location
- Descriptions of those involved
- Video footage, if possible

The more information provided, the better equipped police are to take enforcement action and hold offenders accountable.

This behaviour is not harmless fun — it's dangerous, disruptive, and illegal.

CATCH OF THE WEEK

Send us your fishing photos this summer and be in to win a $50 Top Catch voucher from GAS Maraetai each week!
The overall season winner will win a brand new rod and reel sponsored by GAS Maraetai.

Eden Waddell caught the first fish on her family's new boat, Residency. As it wasn't a keeper, it went back to live another day. The snapper was caught on the bottom end of Waiheke, just outside of Man o War bay. Eden is a super keen fisher and has big ambitions to catch a massive snapper.

TO ENTER, EMAIL YOUR PHOTO TO
include your full name, plus details about your catch (where the fish was caught, boat name, special gear used, what you did with the fish after it was caught etc).

BARFOOT THOMPSON & Student Voice

LOCAL STUDENTS' NEWS, VIEWS & LITERARY TALENT

This column features news, views and literary talents of students from Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Brookby, Hunua, Paparimu, Orere and Ardmore Schools.
One student featured each week will be presented with a certificate and a $20 book voucher, thanks to Barfoot & Thompson's Beachlands and Whitford branches.

New World

Imagine waking up one morning to find your reflection is missing and not just that but everything around you seems to be a little off. The sky is a weird shade of green, your shoes are suddenly too big and the air smells like cotton candy and something a little more dangerous. You check your phone but it's frozen on a single cryptic message. The game starts now. What do you do? I go outside and check out the green sky. A UFO has crashed into area 51. I see a bunch of clones staring at me. I try saying hello...but no response.
I wake up in a room full of mirrors but there's no reflection. It's like a maze but no corners. You go straight. When I made it to the end there was a strange house. I re-spawn into the house, it was the one I saw at the end of the maze but surprisingly it was my house. Everything was the same. The clones had entered my house just staring at me. Then I heard a beep, it was my phone and it said you have completed the game.

Community Planting Days

8 June - 12 July

Help rangers and volunteers to plant trees. Once you get to the park, follow the signs to the meeting area. Planting starts at 10am and finishes at approximately 12.30pm. Wear enclosed boots or shoes and weather appropriate clothes; planting will happen even if it rains. Bring along your water bottles, spades and gloves if you have them. If you don't have tools, we can provide a spade and some gloves. It may be muddy work. At the end of the planting, light food will be provided. Protect our parks from kauri dieback disease. Bring only clean footwear and equipment to our parks. Book early to avoid disappointment - later planting dates (per park) will be cancelled if all trees are planted.
