Splore's final festival marks end of an era

Splore's main stage

Traffic jams tend to be a once-yearly occurrence in Ōrere Point. But last Sunday local residents waved goodbye to their annual traffic congestion, as festival goers headed home from the final Splore event at Tāpapakanga Regional Park.

Since Splore first made Tāpapakanga its home, the festival has brought a welcome boost to Ōrere Point. Thousands of visitors travel through the area each summer, with small businesses benefitting from the influx and most residents enjoying the buzz.

Splore has become known for its eclectic mix of live music, DJs, performance art, wellness experiences and immersive installations. The festival draws people from across the country while it's environmental ethos and inclusive vibe has made it arguably one of the most responsible festivals in the country.

Last weekend's three-day family-friendly extravaganza boasted more than 40 musical acts, visual arts, wellness experiences, and live entertainment including cyborg sound poetry, an ASMR bar, free hugs and Cirque du Solittle. Representatives from local iwi Ngāti Pāoa and Ngāti Whānaunga were also there to share information about their history and current involvement in environmental initiatives.

Editorial by Hūnua Ararimu and Paparimu Valley Residents Association

Nowhere is safe - Hūnua proposed managed fill could set a dangerous precedent for local areas if approved by Government's Fast-Track panel

That was the message we gave to locals attending a second public meeting at Hūnua Hall last Friday (20 February).

We understand the developer behind the Jones Road, Hūnua managed fill proposal is contemplating going down the Fast-Track route. If they get the green light, all semi-rural areas in New Zealand will be under threat and any farmland bordering cities such as Auckland will be targeted. Clevedon, Kawakawa Bay, Paparimu, Ararimu communities will all be vulnerable.

On 9 February, Auckland Council emailed submitters to say the developer had paused Resource Consent (RC) proceedings, just two weeks out from the hearing. Days later HAPVRA learned the developer was considering applying via the Fast-Track option.

According to the Fast-Track website, the permanent approval process is for new infrastructure, housing and development projects with significant regional or national benefits. We don't believe the proposed Jones Rd fill - which involves dumping 790,000 cubic metres of soil and construction waste on a hill off the main road over the next 10 years - fits those requirements. Firstly, there's an oversupply of quarries in the South Auckland region: Winstone Aggregates' Hūnua Quarry is just five kilometres from the proposed new site and Stevenson's Quarry is a short drive away in Drury. Secondly the proposed private fill provides no economic benefit to Hūnua.

According to the Fast-Track website, recently approved projects include major expansion to Drury Quarry, Mill Road construction, and residential and commercial development in Drury. These all have merit.

So far, no new managed fills on farmland have been approved under the Fast-Track process. If the Jones Rd, Hūnua fill is approved, it will create a major precedent.

We don't believe the Government had destruction of farmland in the gateway to the iconic Hūnua Ranges in mind when this new legislation was passed at the end of 2024.

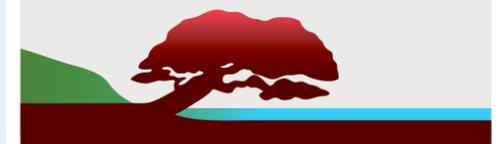

We hope Minister for Infrastructure Chris Bishop won't refer the Hūnua proposed fill for the Fast-Track process, especially given that a RC hearing was just two weeks away, both Watercare and Auckland Council recommended refusal, and more than 500 residents opposed the submission.

If the developer decides against perusing the Fast-Track option, they can return to the RC hearing process, provided they resume proceedings by 21 May.

In the meantime, we're working to get the message out to a nationwide audience: fill belongs in quarries, not on farmland.

Franklin Local Board reaches out to Beachlands and Maraetai groups

Franklin Local Board is breaking new ground this year, in an attempt to better understand the priorities and perspectives of Beachlands and Maraetai residents.

Unlike Clevedon, Kawakawa Bay, Whitford and Hūnua, the Pōhutukawa Coast does not have a formal residents association which represents the wider community. Instead, it has splintered groups such as the Youth Council, the Arts Hub, Menz Shed, the Takutai Trust, U3A, churches, sports clubs, Te Puru and other organisations.

Newly elected Franklin Local Board member Alix Bonnington, who lives in Beachlands, says this year the board is organising monthly meetings where community representatives from all local groups can come together and discuss the area's needs and wants, and to perhaps work together collaboratively towards possible solutions.

"Rather than try to resurrect a new entity like the [previous] Pōhutukawa Coast Community Association, the board is running regular meetings to keep the local community up to date, so that we can understand what the Pōhutukawa Coast wants, and know that we are on track," says Alix.

"We're going to get a lot more information and collaboration than we have had."

The board will set up a Facebook networking group for local organisations, where it can share events and information, says Alix.

Last week Alix and fellow local board member Amanda Hopkins held three sessions which were well attended by various community representatives.

Going forward, the board plans to hold monthly community meetings on Tuesday evenings.

One of the key issues the area faces is a lack of community space where groups can meet. Pressure is mounting on existing facilities such as the Log Cabin, local churches, halls and other venues who are generally fully booked at peak (after school) times.

The board will soon begin operating the Beachlands Hall as a shared space which will include the Beachlands Library, and will be staffed by council employees a few hours each week. The old library on Second View Ave will be tidied up to provide another space that can be used by community groups.

To find out more about Franklin Local Board's meetings with local community representatives or to add your organisation to the meeting invitation list, contact lucy.stallworthy@aucklandcouncil.govt.nz.

Beachlands Maraetai AFC kicks off 2026 season with Open Day

Beachlands Maraetai Associated Football Club (BMAFC) will launch the 2026 football season with two community events over the coming weeks.

Founded in 1984 by the late Steve Dunne, the club has spent more than four decades providing opportunities for children from the age of five, as well as men and women of all ages, to play “the beautiful game”.

Club president Mark McClintock says that while BMAFC is small in scale compared with some Auckland clubs, it remains a passionate and community-driven organisation that continues to grow in strength and depth.

“Today, the club’s current focus is on developing strong youth pathways that support young players to grow, progress, and enjoy their football journey. Looking ahead, the club’s future direction centres on expanding and strengthening opportunities for girls and women, ensuring this space continues to flourish over the coming seasons. With a mission to provide opportunities for the community to participate in and enjoy football, and a vision to be the most progressive, family-oriented club in East Auckland, Beachlands Maraetai AFC remains committed to delivering football that brings people together,” says Mark.

This season’s first major event is the club’s annual Open Day this Saturday

BMAFC’s new president Mark McClintock.

The morning will feature a coffee cart, BBQ, bouncy castle and games for boys’ and girls’ age groups. Senior football follows, with the Men’s First Team taking on Waitemata at 12.45pm and the U23s playing at 3pm.

A week later, on Saturday 7 March, the club will host a Girls and Women’s Muster Day from 9.30am, also at the Beachlands Domain. The day is dedicated to growing girls’ and women’s football and includes a coffee cart, BBQ, face painting, tug of war, and a football gear swap & sale, along with on-field sessions led by the Women’s First Team from 10am. Muster games for all ages begin at 11am, and the day concludes with the Women’s First Team vs Pukekohe at 1pm. The club is also exploring the formation of a women’s 30+ social team, with anyone interested encouraged to come along - no experience required.

The club acknowledges the support of its sponsors Sutcliffe Matson Law, Ray White Beachlands, Monarch Business Solutions, The Franklin and Survey Plus, whose backing helps deliver accessible, community-focused football.

Send us your fishing photos this summer and be in to win a $50 Top Catch voucher from GAS Maraetai each week!

The overall season winner will win a brand new rod and reel sponsored by GAS Maraetai.

Ian Scarborough tried to talk his grandson into wagging a day off school to come fishing, but no his grandson said “no way” - he loves School too much.

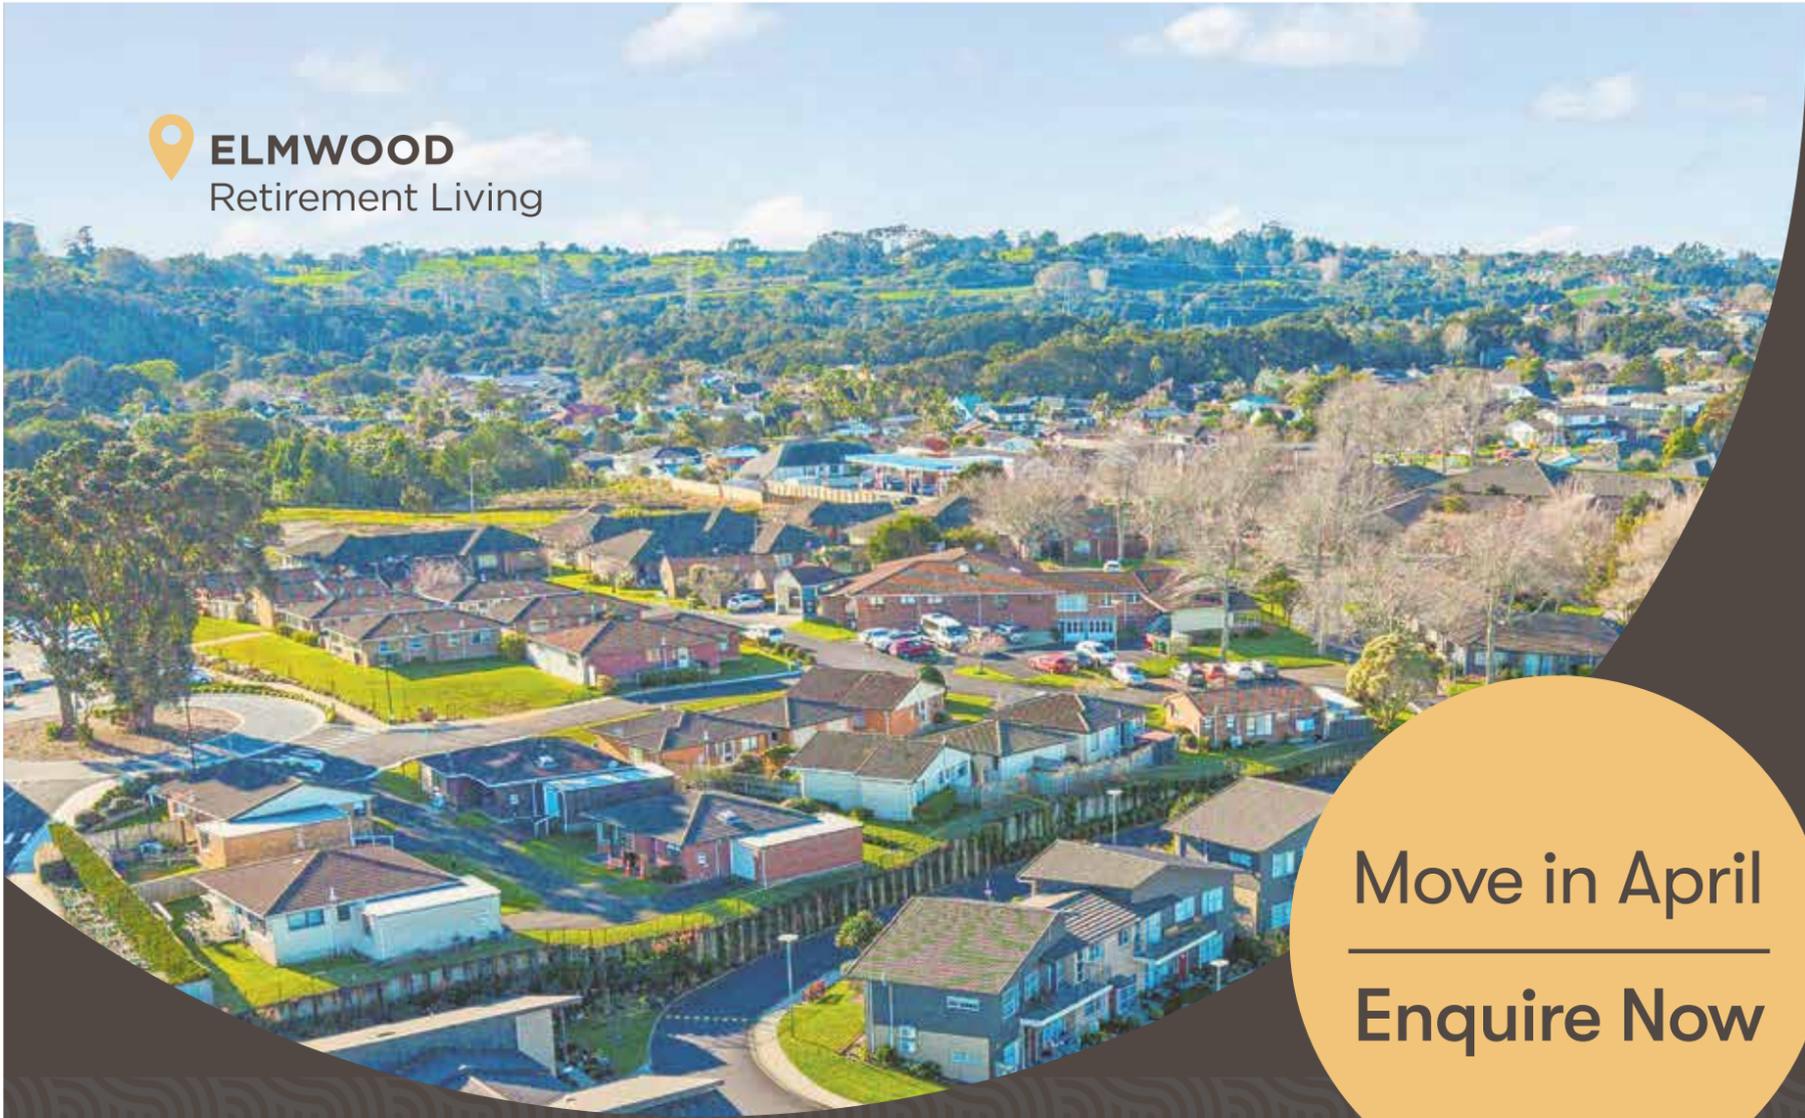

So Ian talked his eldest granddaughter Stephanie into wagging a day off from University to spend a day fishing with her pop.

“She is a very keen fisho, so was a push over,” says Ian. “I’m a naughty grandfather even thinking and encouraging grandkids into wagging study to come fishing.”

Stephanie just happened to catch her personal best snapper off Parks Point that day. The fish measured 65cm and weighed 4kg, caught on a whole squid bait.

TO ENTER, EMAIL YOUR PHOTO TO

Sun, sea, sand and success for Operation Beaches initiative

Police say Operation Beaches proved a success this summer with an increased Police presence at popular seaside locations in East Auckland.

During the Christmas period Police, Auckland Council, NZ Fisheries, and Auckland Transport, Tangata Whenua, Maori and Pacific Wardens worked together to ensure all beachgoers could enjoy summer safely.

Counties Manukau East Area Community Services Manager, Senior Sergeant Simon Cornish, says high visibility patrols were conducted throughout the holiday season.

“This summer was about focusing on ensuring everyone who either resides in this area, or was visiting, had a safe and memorable experience.

“There was strong compliance from the public alongside a significant increase in the number of people using local beaches and recreational areas.”

Senior Sergeant Cornish says the joint operation played a key role in keeping communities safe during one of the busiest times of the year.

“Our teams were out daily, engaging with beach users and monitoring activity on the water and around reserves.”

He says Police continue to encourage the community to remain vigilant and to report incidents promptly.

“Any crime or suspicious behaviour occurring right now should be reported via 111.

“Any non-urgent matters should be directed to 105.”

He says residents are also reminded to lock their vehicles, remove valuables, and avoid leaving bags or items in plain sight.

“Another ongoing challenge for the area is the unsafe use of dirt bikes and pit bikes on roads and public reserves.

“These vehicles pose a risk to riders, pedestrians, and other road users.”

Senior Sergeant Cornish says Police continue to take a zero tolerance approach toward unlawful riding and encourage members of the public to report sightings or concerns so officers can follow up swiftly.

“Our priority is maintaining safe, welcoming spaces for all residents and visitors.

“Community reporting plays a crucial role in helping Police respond quickly and effectively.”

Know a touch rugby volunteer hero?

Nominations are open to celebrate the unsung heroes whose dedication and generosity help their Touch communities thrive, with selected recipients receiving $5,000 to reinvest in grassroots sport.

As one of the Pōhutukawa Coast's most popular sports, Touch relies on the commitment of volunteers and supporters who help players train, compete and represent their communities.

Bunnings Home Ground Heroes is inviting Touch communities across Aotearoa to recognise the volunteers who make the game possible. From organisers and coaches to those working behind the scenes, the initiative aims to celebrate people whose passion and mahi keep Touch thriving at a grassroots level.

Past recipients have used the support to expand local initiatives, reduce barriers for families and invest in equipment that strengthens participation.

Touch communities are encouraged to nominate those who make a difference to the sport. Nominators will simply need to outline how their nominee positively impacts the Touch community and how a $5,000 grant would further strengthen their efforts.

Nominations close Saturday, 14 March 2026, with winners to be announced in mid-April. For more information visit: <https://www.touchnz.co.nz/bunnings-home-ground-heroes>

Franklin Vets advice: Fighting Fleas Together

- by Franklin Vets

This time of year, is often one of the worst for fleas in this very hot humid weather they thrive in! Fleas are a common misconception that if you have fleas, you have a dirty environment – this is simply not true!

This year we have had countless clients come in with a flea problem, both on their pet and in the environment. One case that has stuck out is Bob! Bob is a 5-year-old ginger cat whose owners noticed what they described as small red tinged droplets on his bed where he slept, upon closer look they noticed hundreds of fleas in his fur. They also noticed him over grooming around his ears, tails and lower back and him “spinning quickly” to nibble his fur.

Shocked by their discovery his owners brought him down to the clinic in need of some help to control the issue. Some of our recommendations were:

- Applying an over-the-counter veterinary recommended flea treatment to his skin. Some of our favourites being NexGard Spectra (a 4 weekly, topical treatment for fleas/ticks/mites and all worms), Bravecto spot on (a 3 monthly topical treatment for fleas and ticks) or Revolution Plus (a 4 weekly topical treatment). Each having their own pros, cons and contraindications, which we will always work with the owner to help decide which is best for their pet).

- Vacuuming daily, moving furniture to get everywhere
- Washing all the bedding in a hot wash (animals and humans)
- If there is bark in the backyard replacing it as fleas love to live in bark
- Doing a flea bomb around the house (Our favourite is Indorex)
- Flea treating all other animals in the house.

Some common signs your pet may have fleas are:

- Flea dirt on your pet
- Itchy pets
- Spinning quickly to nibble fur
- Overgrooming
- Bald patches or raised red areas
- Scabs on the skin (In some cases animals may have what we call flea allergy dermatitis, which is an allergic reaction to the flea’s saliva when they bite)
- Bites on humans, particularly kids
- Tapeworms.

If your animal has fleas, it is highly recommended we also treat them with an all wormer, such as Endogard, Drontal or
